The Story:

Both are Mistresses and are very very good at this work. I turned up and was shown into a room where a video was playing and with books. 20mins later I was kneeling on the floor having two very good looking ladies asking me questions. They enjoy the work and it shows when you are with them, they will push you to take more and then reward you, its worth the pain for the reward. I am a newbie at this and it was great. Dont go to parlours for this, come and see these two. They did everything I asked and more and their eyes can see right through you. The feel of their skin as they pressed on me was delightful as where all the toys they had and used on me. All in all, a fantastic mild (I asked for it) encounter. It even felt like i was not going to be let out until they decided I had enough, I had paid for one hour but was in the room with them both for at least 1 1/2 hours. Worth Every penny and I hope they dont mind this report.
