The Premises:

Her place was a nice hotel about 10 min walking North of Times Square. There was a doorman/security in the lobby to keep out the riffraff. Safety wasn't much of a concern as it was noon on a Saturday, but since the place was on a main street, I couldn't see you being in danger even at night. Place was clean and bathroom/shower was stocked and on offer.

The Lady:

Amy, as can be seen on her site, is full figured. If you want a girl that's rail thin and built like a stick, she won't be for you. If you want a woman, then keep reading.

A pair of dainty feet lead to a great pair of legs that grew up to make a nice ass out of themselves. Pretty face with a sweet smile and beautiful eyes are above. That leads us to the chest region. To say that Amy is buxom is like saying that the sun is hot. It just doesn't do them justice. She's a double "G", as in "Good God". Very very nice. (And I'm not even a boob man, but I think she shifted me a few degrees in that direction)

The Story:

For those of you guys that want to hear what your getting, I'll stick to the usual acronyms.

I arrived on time, and was met by Amy at the door. I hadn't specified any type of clothes, and I was pleased to see her in a nice blouse, knee length skirt, nice shoes and glasses(she says she doesn't do role playing, but she could definitely pass for the milf teacher fantasy). We chatted for awhile, went into snogging. She's a hell of a kisser. Reverse oral followed and then went into covered on me. Main event time with us doing all of the usual positions with us finishing up with hand relief for me. (Not her fault. I always have that problem with condoms.) We talked some more after.

So, fellas, here's my takeaway on this. You're going to get a woman who screws with the enthusiasm of a woman 15 years younger. She does everything advertised (though I didn't partake in A levels, it is offered. Wanted to save something for next time though) and does it with enthusiasm. Will try my damndest to repeat the next time she's on this side of the Atlantic.
