The Story:

As an active punting hobbyist for the last three years visiting massage parlours throughout the midlands, this was the first time I visited an independent escort in a hotel. I decided to visit evie after a chat over the phone with her. We met at a hotel in Nottingham as evie could not provide her own location on that day for some personal reasons.

Building rapport with evie was simple. I started by playing with her then requested a BJ. she responded very well. From there we went on to 69, doggy-style & then cow girl. It was very sincere of her to let me come twice as agreed in the initial face to face conversation and not to reject any of my requests. I would describe this as one of the top three most satisfying punts I have had in the last three years.
