The Story:

Mixed feelings about this visit. It was quickly established that she basically doesn't like to be kissed...let alone DFK, her style is to give light pecks, which is endearing , but not what I had hoped or been promised on booking. So that was a bit of a downer, and when she then only offered covered oral, I felt even worse.. I see I?m not the first to remark on these issues, but others have found otherwise, so who knows. I do realise all these matters are at the lady?s discretion although I haven't had any complaints in the past. However, we got over that and I ended up having a good time. She is good at oral, and as other say, a real delight once the main action starts.

We didnt click in the way some others appear to have done: I felt a bit of distance from her, perhaps not surprising given the initial misunderstandings. I would stress however , that what was on offer she did with professionalism and skill. A lovely GFE..

I did also enquire after spanking (as per her profile) however, she said shes not into anything non-vanilla like that.
