The Premises:

We met in my hotel.

The Lady:

As described in her website, dark hair, pale skin, a model's figure and face, elegant, and immaculate. A total stunner!

The Story:

Dexi arrived in good time for our meeting, and her relaxed, confident manner banishes any nerves or hesitancy. At my request Dexi wore one of the outfits that appears in some of her photo shoots (but discreet enough to pass through reception without any problem). A friendly chat and then followed an amazing "private time" - the details of which will remain private - but suffice to say that we indulged in all my favourite things and a few more that I hadn't even thought of before! Dexi certainly knows how to please a chap!

It was a fabulous experience, and certainly one to be repeated as I'm sure she has more tricks and teases in store than we could explore in two hours.

Highly recommended!
