The Premises:

Flat shared by several girls in Baker Street, although the website listed Helen as being in High Street Kensington.

The Lady:

The real Helen is a very attractive Thai girl. The Helen I was sent to was not the girl in the photos, but was a reasonably attractive Chinese girl.

The Story:

I had seen Helen before with another website but could only find her on Asian Gallery so went ahead and booked. When I got to the address I was given I met a Chinese girl and asked where Helen is and she told me she was Helen! I told her I had seen Helen before and she was not Helen but she seemed attractive enough so I stayed anyway. What I got was a pretty average experience. I received OWO for a short time, then on to sex but she kept asking me if I was gonna cum yet which put me off. Not a bad girl, but far from the best i've seen and a bait and switch agency so who you are sent to is pot luck. If you can find the real Helen go and see her but avoid this agency!
