The Premises:

Usual flat, made use of the wet room, shower still needs some attention but it does get a lot of use. Got the room by the door with a nice big mirror. Bit dusty on the lampshade and candles above the bed. Also noticed the wooden blocks under the bed, to protect it from the constant action I'm guessing! Don't normally notice this level of detail but I had a plenty of time to nose around this visit...!

The Lady:

Pixie was dressed in a sexy little santa outfit - very seasonal. She has short, blonde cropped hair and is very pretty with an extremely sexy mouth which I love. Has a tan, unlike her pics which suits her. She's slim with a great little bum and nice natural breasts.

The Story:

When Pixie finally entered the room I had kind of lost my enthusiasm a bit but I'll tackle that later. However, she was bubbly and friendly from the off and not being one to dwell, I perked up. She was happy to take the lead and get things going too.

She's small, cute and has a lovely mouth and kisses properly. Kissing is really important to me so this was great. I've always had a thing for short cropped-blond haired girls and I do like a good bum so Pixie ticks a lot of boxes.

She's a very sexy girl and very tactile and willing and everything is done with enthusiasm. OWO was great, 69 was good, the sex was fun and she likes to give you plenty of encouragement and has no inhibitions.

I'll definitely visit her again as I found her so sexy, maybe for longer next time as I think she has even more to offer. Some girls are fun to just have a half hour quickie but I'd quite like to spend a little more time with Pixie and start of on the right foot.

Now the less good bit: the only problem I had was that Pixie was running a full half an hour late. I arrived at 1825 with time for a shower and was informed that she was running a little behind. I'm a bit of a regular and I know it's not unusual to wait a few minutes so I took my time in the shower and was shown to the room and brought a drink by the very pleasant maid, whom I've met many times and she's always nothing but very kind and welcoming. Unfortunately I ended up having to wait half an hour in the room for Pixie to finish with her previous client. The maid to, her credit, popped her head around the door once or twice to apologise but by the time Pixie was free, well I was pretty fed up to be honest and it made me rather late for another engagement that evening. If I'd known it would be that long I'd have just arranged another day and left but I felt a bit stuck in the room as I didn't really want to go wandering about in just my towel to ask what the score is!

On a more positive note, through the door, I heard Pixie get a bit of an earful for running over when she emerged from her last appointment and I was a little concerned that it might dampen her enthusiasm but no, she was great.

I must stress, I've been using the MK establishments for a long time now and I've never had cause for complaint before and would still recommend Annabella's to anybody. These things happen sometimes, I don't think anyone was really to blame, and I guess I'll just put it down to experience.
