The Premises:

A Nebula of Naughtiness where future stars are born.

The Lady:

Mira is a young girl with a heavenly body; she has no studs, tattoos or other adornments - just uncluttered elegance.

The Story:

The universe is a vast empty space dotted with little spiral galaxies that contain millions of stars. The Earth is but a tiny speck of dust floating in this dark void. There are no deities directing events, just the natural laws of quantum mechanics, where protons attract wandering electrons like working girls attract punters, exerting an irresistible force which draws them towards the heart of Central Milton Keynes.

Cindy greeted me at the door and led me to the bedroom. Inside was a size 6 bundle of sexiness preparing herself for her first appointment. She was 5 feet nothing tall, had long black hair, a very pretty face and a full set of teeth - like a young, Spanish Kylie Minogue.

"Are you Mira?" I enquired.

"Yes," she smiled. Without moving my feet, I slid across the wooden floor like I was on skates. I took her in my arms, kissed her neck and slipped my hand into her panties. Mmm, she was a lithesome little wriggler. After some diligent rubbing, her knees buckled, but curiously her fanny remained as dry the canyons of Mars.

Mira was a willing kisser - open mouthed at first, then, after a respectable amount of time, with tongues. She tugged at my trousers impatiently, so we moved to the bed for a bout of oral without. There was no scrotum licking, but her oral was very good. There was plenty of eye contact and enthusiasm.

We tried Cowgirl and Missionary. I didn't expect to finish in Missionary, but when she slid her hand down and caressed my apple sac, I lost control and exploded like a supernova.

Mira is a little star - like Proxima Centauri, but brighter.
