The Premises:

One of the less salubrious establishments in the Soho area, and one that I have not visited before. I was directed here after visiting a couple of my old favourites, but due to the rush-hour demand, many were occupied and unavailable. Spatial with discrete enough arrangements. Stair-case entry very narrow and not very discrete to other visitors.

The Lady:

A mid-20?s Spanish lady, with a bit of puppy-fat embellishment, and a largish bust. Not really firm in any detail, but nice enough for the purpose. Proved to be pleasant enough, although English is not her strong suit. Had to request the removal of her clothing, but was amicable enough to comply.

The Story:

Well, after I had tumbled upon this encounter unintentionally, I opted for the standard services. This was rush hour and I have to admit that the whole procedure was somewhat hastened, but I would principally acclaim this to the nature of others waiting and a high amount of demand.

The girl claimed to be Spanish and after my rather-sketchy attempt to engage her in her native tongue, I was pleasantly surprised to receive proficient responses in the authentic language.

Perhaps then a Spaniard, but no guarantees, naturally.

her oral skills were excellent, despite the condom being applied well before it?s appropriate time.

Sex thereafter was pleasant, although again, there was a distinct aura of pace and mechanical process. Nothing untoward occurred, but it was business at the office and no hanging around. I was a bit perturbed that the girl left the room immediately afterwards, whilst I dressed to depart, but other customers and trade was ripe, so I can forgive this lapse in social ethics.

I will recommend due to the nice nature of the lady and the enjoyable busty physique she sports, but would hesitate to return, especially so on a late Friday afternoon.
