The Premises:

The place is located within the premises of the Texaco petrol station. If you search the place using GoogleMap that petrol station will appear as Jet, but in fact its been rebranded to Texaco. I had no problem walking up to the Unit 1 building in board daylight, although there were people driving and walking past the main pathway. You must ring a buzzer to gain entry into the building and wait at the reception to be allowed past the metal door by an older lady. The place is general is very clean and tidy.

The Lady:

I met Sammy, told me that she was 30 years of age, but the website claimed her age to be 23. Anyhow she had an average appearance but great boob and body which made up for what she lacked.

The Story:

I opted for an hour's worth of pleasure, soon as I walked into the building I was directed to a room by an older lady. She asked me to get undressed and whether I prefer oral with or without condom, hearing that I knew I was in for a good time. Then Sammy came into the room naked and directed me to the Jacuzzi, where I played with her body and she with my cock. We later went into a room she slipped on the condom, gave me a BJ, followed by sex in various position until I came inside her. I rested for a while and went for round two until my hour was over.

I would describe the session as more sex compared to massage.
