The Premises:

Imogen keeps a pleasant, quiet, and tidy flat no more than a 3 to 4 minute walk from the Bayswater tube station. It is easy to find, and in a safe area. Shower is available for before and after the massage.

The Lady:

No question, Imogen is an attractive young woman. While her photos do give lovely hints of her appearance, in reality, they do not do her justice. She's better looking in person, and that is due in no small part to her engaging personality and demeanor. There is nothing artificial or contrived about her appearance. She is authentically and naturally pretty.

The Story:

In all candor, I am not a regular or experienced consumer of services, and Imogen is the only provider that I have cared to visit in London. However, I have had massages before, and know quality when I see (and feel) it. I will consider it a happy accident that I was fortunate enough to stumble across her site. Having visited Imogen on more than one occasion, I can honestly say that she offers a completely satisfying and worthwhile experience. If you are expecting something functional, hurried, or cheap, then look elsewhere. What she offers is a quality massage that just happens to include great moments of sensuality. It is a total experience, delivered with intimacy and skill. She will appeal to anyone who can appreciate a high level of service and care, and who is clever and sophisticated enough to know the difference between what Imogen provides, and what others who are less refined and appealing can offer. She is an intelligent and gentle soul and it is easy to appreciate how time with her is time nicely spent. I will definitely and happily return, and can faithfully recommend her to others who are similarly interested.
