The Story:

I had visited the Retreat many times, but never Amy, and went for 1 hour of tie and tease. She dressed up as I had asked her to in a sexy PVC outfit with high boots. First she strapped me to the cross where she tied my balls and gave me a massage, followed by a covered blow job that was nice but a bit mechanic. After some more nipple twisting and cock rubbing, I was released from the cross. Next, I unzipped her dress and started to lick her tits standing in front of the mirror. Unfortunately she complained that her tits were oh so sensitive and withdrew several times, despite the fact that I never did anything more than just lick them. This was disappointing and ruined some of the experience.

She then tied me to the bed, belly down, and gave me an anal massage with her finger, which felt good, but in the mirror I could see that she clearly was bored. However, she then produced a vibrator that she put under my cock so that I could feel the vibrations while she resumed her anal massage: a very good combination - try it :-). This part actually turned out to be the highlight of the session as I wiggled on the bed, feeling the vibrator against my hard cock and her finger in the arse while I just closed my eyes to concentrate on the good feelings.

She then released me and I asked her to touch herself in front of me while I wanked a bit. That could have been a very beautiful panorama had she not done it also in a very mechanical way. I then thought "better now than later" (knowing that this would cut the session short by some 10-15 minutes) and mounted her in missionary position. While she spread her legs nicely for me to penetrate deeply, she did not really get into the rhythm and I had the feeling that she was just waiting patiently for the end. I finally came inside her and collapsed on top of her while she gently stroke my back - for about 5 seconds.

The good: A friendly, beautiful girl, soft skin and nice to watch, especially in a sexy outfit.

The disappointments: 1. She was clearly not into the session, which is a pity since she has so much potential and I usually get a very good service from the girls at the Retreat.

2. Although I had asked at the beginning of the session for a strap-on experience she forgot about it and since I had to direct her almost every step of the way (despite us having had a prep talk at the beginning), at the time the strap-on would have nicely fit into the routine I was already a bit disenchanted with the session so that I simply decided to leave it out.

I must admit that I have seen her only once and maybe she just had a bad day, but I won't try my luck a second time. However, I think she might be somebody else's cup if one prefers looks to active engagement.
