The Premises:

This was my first time to a Thai parlour and had been recommended that I try a thai girl.

I found Thai Palace after a quick search on Google.

A very discreet place, in fact I did have some difficulty finding it.

You approach a locked door and ring a bell which is opened electronically (I presume when you have been checked out on CCTV).

The Lady:

Very pretty slim thai lady with an amazing figure and shoulder length dark hair

The Story:

I walked up to reception and was asked whether I wanted 45 mins or an hour. I chose the hour and paid the ?45 fee.

I was then ushered up the stairs and into a room where I was told I would be joined shortly by the lady. I was a little miffed that I was not given the opportunity to choose a lady and was just left sitting on the bed. The room was quite nice, a large bath and large bed.

A few moments later a very pretty thai girl entered the room and asked if "she would be OK ?"

Fuck yeah ! She was a gorgeous little thing ! I told her yes, she would be more than fine then she smiled and said "Ok, lets see what you have got !"

I suttered a little then she laughed and said "Only Joking, please take off your clothes" and she then went over to run a bath.

I took off my clothes and she did the same revealing an incredible slim body with gorgeous little tits and great arse.

She then asked me to get in the bath than joined me in there.

A bot of time chatting and her washing my feet, legs and thighs before she started on the old fella and tickling my arsehole.

At this point she asked if I would be wanting any more.

I asked her how much and she informed me that it would be ?65 for a blow job or ?85 for everything.

I thought it was a bit expensive but when a girl is playing with your a dick and fingering your arse it is kind of hard to say no!

I agreed (although half reluctantly) to go with the ?85 but asked what everything would be, and was told that it wouldn't include anal as my cock was too big. This kinda spoiled the mood a little as I am not particularly large, in fact I would say average, so it started to feel like I was now starting to go through scripted motions.

She then asked for the money up front before going any further.

Anyway, Mya asked me to lay on my front then proceeded to massage my legs. This led to her massaging my buttocks then she used her body to massage my back and arse. It was a nice feeling to have her tits moving up and down my back and down my arse crack but it did lose its appeal after so long.

She then asked me to turn over and then started cupping my bollocks then slowly wanking my cock as she unwrapped a condom. She then put the condom in her mouth and used her mouth to put it on my cock. Once on she maybe move her mouth up and down my cock perhaps two or three times before jumping on top.

She had an incredibly tight pussy which, with her banging up and down furiously straight away made me come almost instantly.

She then jumped off, pulled off the condom then went and washed "herself" in the bath.

She then invited me back into the bath and proceeded to wash my back and shoulders which I couldn't help thinking was because it was all over a bit too soon so was justifying the time.

After 15 mins or so, we got out of the bath, got dressed and I was on my way.

It was a strange experience, I can't fault Mya, and my lack of self control to be able to last long enough to enjoy the experience more than likely had a great deal of bearing on the way I was feeling but I did feel that I had paid over the top, ?85 for a few minutes.

So, for the recommending and returning

I personally would not return, though I stress this was not because the lady gave a bad service but I left feeling that it was a little bit of "get them in, get them out" experience

That being said, if someone has not been I would suggest that they go and try the thai experience, even if it is only once.
