The Lady:

The young lady was an averagely pretty Chinese girl but definitely not the girl on the website. Why oh why is this agency still in business?!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

The Story:

This is the second time I have used this agency and I feel that for the sake of my fellow punters I have to speak out. This is the classic 'bait and switch' agency. I feel most sorry for the poor girl who has to meet the punter only for him to walk out, often angry that he has spent time and money only to have his hopes dashed at the last minute. The young lady who greeted me was quite pretty. Why not put HER photos on the website? I gave her ?20 and explained to her why I could not stay. It's just the feeling that the agency are taking the piss out of you that kills the moment and prevents you from going through with it. I am an experienced punter of many years standing, so I did ask the receptionist if the photos were genuine. I was assured they were. I have calmed down now but at the time I was livid. I wonder how many punters actually go through with the booking? Make a stand chaps and don't proceed if you are sure you have been conned. If enough punters pull the plug on this agency (and others like them) they will soon disappear which can only be a good thing for the likes of us, the honest punting public. Thank you Punternet for the chance to vent my frustrations!!!!
