The Premises:

We met in my hotel in Brighton and this is the second time that she has visited me there. Dolly is a very cool and sophisticated lady and although the staff at the hotel have a pretty good idea of what I do there, I believe that they are always intrigued by her and not a little jealous!

The Lady:

As mentioned above, Dolly is a gorgeous, sophisticated lady in her early 40s. She is of medium height with long dark hair framing an adorable face. If you are looking for a "stick insect" then she is certainly not for you however she is beautifully curvy in all the right places and on the two occasions that I have seen her, she has been wearing the most stylish and sophisticated dress-the sort that makes men's heads turn.

The Story:

Dolly arrived at my hotel in Brighton by train from London at about 5 PM and that gave us time to catch up on our news over the last 12 months since we last met.

We then went out to dinner at 7 PM at a nearby Italian restaurant and returned to the hotel for "fun and frolics".

As I am sure that you can guess from her website, Dolly is a very accomplished lover indeed and being with her is just like being with someone you have known for a very long time. In a word I think I can say that "what you see is what you get" and what you both see and get is very nice indeed! After breakfast in bed in the morning, we did not get around to getting up until 12 noon and I will leave it to your imagination as to what kept us in bed.

She then left to see friends in Brighton and I had to go to work desperately trying to keep a broad smile off my face.

Dolly is very highly recommended indeed and just wonderful company. Do not think about it-just go and see her!
