The Premises:

My place, so reasonably clean

The Lady:

Short blonde hair, glasses. Nice skin, not fake tanned. About 5'7" tall between 18-20 y/o. Average build, not skinny, not fat. Photos on website give a reasonable idea. Dressed casual, in nice top, jeans and boots.

The Story:

I arranged a booking for 1 hour outcall. She was prompt. Very chatty and very friendly. Explained she had not been doing this very long. We sat, had an introductory drink, relaxed. I then suggested we go upstairs. Was offered a massage (to which I removed clothing down to briefs). I was a little surprised as I received massage with Alexius fully clothed - apart from she removed her boots. My back was well stroked, however nothing where it counts.

I was rather shocked when she then said "Oh, look at the time" jumped up and put her boots back on ready to leave pointing out that my hour was up.

Faced with the dilemma of not seeing her in the nude, I agreed to pay for the extra hour. Extra cash dispensed, I then insisted she take everything off and rapidly got my eyeful. Her body is nice. However, no OWO (she stated she does not do that). Also, no kissing (also she stated he does not do that either). Which means at ?300 NO GFE. After things were done, she asked to use the shower (I was then asked to leave the room whilst she showered).

All in all, I hope the lack of sexual interaction is due to lack of her experience. I wish I had known there was no kissing, OWO or anything resembling a GFE. If she had said the limitations in advance, I would have got straight down to business. I wont be phoning again and wish I had donated the ?300 to the ex. or another girl.
