The Premises:

Clean apartment, the budouir of which was nicely lit with subtle lighting and soft music, behind a row of shops on the A236/A235 junction near South Croydon rail station. Entrance is via a staircase behind the shops, so easy to slip in unnoticed by shoppers or cars on the main Croydon-Brighton road.

The Lady:

Slim but nicely curvy Thai woman, aged 25-30, with a small tattoo on her peachy bottom.

The Story:

After texting ahead to ask for the street address, got a reply in under 3 mins giving full address and very helpful directions (maybe a standard, pre-prepared SMS they send to enquiring punters). Was shown in by the maid, led into the room and told Katie would be with me shortly, and offered a choice of (soft) drinks, which I accepted. A minute or two later, the sound of heels on the wooden flooring heralded the arrival of a Thai girl in bra and knickers, holding a wine glass full of liquid and asking 'would you like some of this?' with a saucy smile. Felt a stirring in my pants immediately, I must say!

Katie was a delightful mixture of the chatty and the seductive, knowing instinctively when to use her mouth for things other than talking. She lightly massaged me for 5-10 minutes, with just enough light touches between my legs to get me really hard, then gave some expert covered oral which I had to curtail because by this time I wanted so much to be between her legs. A brief delay ensued while she changed condoms (?), but the sex was really nice, a kind-of girlfriend experience that felt more intimate than the usual punt because of the earlier chat and the elusive 'something' that one occasionally gets when punting (which offsets those so-so punts one often gets). Even after I had climaxed, there appeared to be no indecent rush to disentangle, with more than a few kisses and mutual carressing before we started to get dressed.

Overall, a really nice
