The Lady:

As in her photos on the purple site, cute looking polish girl, 19 yrs of age, around 5ft 6, black hair, good allround figure with nice set of boobs.

The Story:

Advertises as FriendlyNina which is a bit of a joke because she speaks limited English. But she knows how to say "no" and "5 minutes" to my dismay.
Started so promisingly. We got down to some kissing, wasn't deep or very passionate but whilst kissing she let me fondle her tits which were very soft and a reasonable handful.
We carried on kissing for a good few minutes. Seemed relunctant to take take her clothes off but with a bit of my help and persuasion she eventually got them off. She likes to be kissed on the neck. How do I know this? When I tried to move my head from her neck to her face she kept pushing me back slightly. Though to her credit, she did let me play with her boobs.
Then came the big let down. When I got fed up with the foreplay, which was more me servicing her whilst she just laid on the bed, I asked if she could give me oral but she said "no". What about with condom I said, "no" was her reply. This really pissed me off, so much so that I spent the next 15 minutes or so trying to get a hard on. Then she looked at her mobile phone and said "5 minutes". I looked at my watch and according to my calculations I had about 20 minutes left. There was no way now I was going to get hard now so I told her she could go.

If you click on her AW rating her feedback is hidden (no surprises there), instead you get a message saying ".. excercise caution when considering the authenticity of their service offerings". You have been warned!
