The Premises:

Long standing venue close to shops and parking.

The Lady:

Lovely body, about, 5' 5", Med style olive tint to skin, slim but with boobs just hand sized, pert rounded bum. Perfect!

The Story:

Julia had been on my short list for a while but the Twitpics of her in pink top and briefs, zebra skin shoes and finally on hands and knees on a bed moved her to the top of the list!

Unusually, no maid in attendance so Julia answered intercom and door herself. Another female voice in flat but didn't see its owner.

Julia is a very friendly girl and, though comparatively new to the industry, seemed very comfortable and relaxed. Performed my usual massage whilst we chatted and got to know each other, she lying with her eyes dreamily closed whilst I massaged her neck and shoulders. Nice kisses, open mouthed but some reservation re: tongues. Lovely boobies which appeared to respond to kissing and sucking before moving down to pretty pussy. Covered oral (my choice) before she asked "Shall I go on top?". Sorry, but after that hands and knees Twitpic, it had to be doggie - and very nice doggie it was too. She was just the right body/leg length proportions for her body to fit comfortably inside mine and again I felt I didn't have enough hands to reach the parts I wanted whilst still supporting myself!

Some ladies with subsequent appointments encourage you to leave a little early but Julia made sure I got my full time (there was a guy at the outer door when I left though not necessarily for that flat).

In summary, good fun, chat and sex with a lovely girl whom I look forward to seeing again.
