The Premises:

It was a really nice and modern apartment near Marylebone station, and absolutely spotless clean. Entrance to the building from a quite busy road, but its quite discreet, felt really safe.

The room was absolutely perfect, professional message table, nicely decorated, candles lit and smelled nice. And the shower room was clean and was provided fresh clean towels and shower gel for getting cleaned up before and after.

The Lady:

Really pretty and attractive lady, and absolutely perfect figure. Was nicely dressed in a white short dress, which was really nice. And she looks exactly as the pics on her website, but you realize that she's much more gorgeous for real.

The Story:

I would like to start saying that the experience I had with Serena was absolutely amazing!, and it brought a whole new meaning to sensual massage.

When the door opened, I was welcomed by Serena, with a nice smile. She was dressed in a white short dress and barefoot, which was lovely. The session started with a chat, which I was not sure about as it could be weird, but it turned out to be great. We talked a bit about myself, what I was looking for, why I was considering a sensual massage, and how it could help me to reduce stress. I loved every minute of it.

Next was to get a shower, she asked me to undress in the room and gave a fresh towel and directed me to the shower. Had a quick shower, came back I was asked to lie down on the massage table face down. The massage started with a very gentle touch of feathers on my back, which was so nice, and gradually moved to a more intense massage by her hand which covered my head to feet. During this time, I felt she's taking off her dress and putting down, but since I could only see her legs during this time, it was quite a tease and arousing.

Gradually, the massage got quite sensual, she was rubbing her body slightly on my back, where I felt her breasts gliding through my back, and the sensuality got more intense with time as well as she got on the bed and started gliding her whole body against mine. This was such a turn on. During the whole of this time, there was slight touching and teasing of the erogenous areas.

Then she whispered me to turn around, and the sight was amazing. It was the first time I saw her fully, and it was so worth the wait. Shapely body, with the absolutely perfect breasts and the nicest skin. She started massaging my front, with teasing body to body contact, and having to see Serena working on my body was absolutely hot.

And then came the best part, she sat on the bed between my legs and putting my legs around her, she started massaging and teasing my erogenous area. The she gradually moved to stroking me gently, while keeping eye contact, at which point I really felt she's really enjoying this as well, which was so satisfying. Then she stretched her hand towards me and asked me to sit, and we shared the most intimate moment with our bodies touching together with our hand around each other, with gentle kissing on the neck. To complement this, there a mirror just opposite, where I could see myself wrapped around Serena from the back, wow!

Then she lied on her back again, and gave me a really arousing handjob, while still sitting between my legs, giving me a full view of her doing it. She welcomed light touching of her body, including her breasts and intimate areas, with respect ofcourse. When the stroking got really intense, I felt something that I have never felt before, it was the best orgasm I ever had, which ended with a really happy ending.

She cleaned me up while I was still lying on the bed, and let me rest a little wrapped in a warm towel. Then she offered me a shower, and when I came back we had a quick chat while I was getting dressed, where I told her that it was really an awesome experience. It was already passed the time I was supposed to leave, but even I rushed she was never rushed. Serena walked me to the door to bid farewell.

Overall, this is the best sensual experience I have ever had, and would like to recommend to anybody without any second thoughts. I will surely visit this lady when I am in London the next time. Thank you Serena for the most memorable experience ever!
