The Story:

Lucy came to my rescue at such short notice(45 mintes to be precise) after i was let down by someone else.After a 5 minute introduction and chat Lucy got prepared and re entered the room in a lovely bra and brief set with suspenders,black stockings and black high heels as i requested!! won't go into much detail about this particular meeting but it was a nice and fulfilling hour i spent with this young lady who put a first time punter so much at ease and was great company.
