The Premises:

A neat cottage set in lovely countryside. The location is easy to find, and Lara gives crystal-clear directions. Safe parking, off-road.

The Lady:

Lara feels that she photographs poorly. She does herself a major injustice, but if you like what you see on the website, you will be even more delighted at meeting Lara in person. Trim; lovely figure; and beautiful soft, almost translucent, skin. A warm, 'come closer', smile. The new hair colour (now available in chestnut!) is very attractive. One small (navel) piercing and one tattoo: both discrete.

The Story:

Lara's website is scrupulously accurate, and sets out clearly what to expect (and what not to expect). Our meeting took place on a gorgeous sunny day and she was elegantly dressed in slyly revealing summer clothes. Add in a properly chilled glass of wine; a cosy, flirty, chat with lots of eye contact and finger touching, and the scene was set perfectly. You could very easily spend all the time in this state of sensitive arousal.

Lara is subtle and responsive, and will gently encourage you to find out what works for her. She has a pretty good idea of what will work for you.....

The only downside is that time passes astonishingly quickly. Lara is bright and engaging, and can talk on a wide range of subjects. She is interesting, sexy, grown-up company of a very high order. A perfect way to spend a summer's afternoon.
