The Lady:

The pictures on the website are accurate, though they don't do her justice. A beautiful brunette with fabulous natural breasts and the sweetest fresh smelling pussy. The website does list her nationality as British, though she is from Romania and has the eastern European accent

The Story:

Reviews on this agency are few and far between. Their website does have a online chat feature that puts you through to reception, I used this to find out who was working on the day in question and scrolled through looking at the profiles in question. Indicating my preference on the online chat again I was told that the lady would contact me closer to the time. The only downside to the entire process was reception was unable to list the services offered by each girl.

Julia herself was amazing she started with some deep French kissing and after removing the remnants of her clothing joined me in my lap on the bed. After paying loving respect to those natural breasts she transitioned from more kissing to some delectable reverse oral. I have to say she was well shaved with no stubble and had the most delightful pussy. I really felt like Julia was enjoying my ministrations and if acting she should win an Oscar. After a quick comfort break and some blood to my much needed member the Johnny wrap was expertly applied. Unfortunately for me whether it was nerves or tiredness although primed I was not able to maintain stiffness. The understanding Julia was sympathetic and tried really hard to get me to full mast. In the end she relieved my pressure with covered oral.

I spent the next 20min with my arms wrapped around her delightful body supplying warmth and enjoying those lovely kisses. Julia was very sweet as pillow talk resumed and she told me about herself while I caressed and fondled all her lovely bits. I certainly didn't feel like I was on the clock and only when a text came through from her driver did she extricate herself and get dressed to part ways.

Although the lack of service information from the agency effectively meant this was a blind punt, I really enjoyed my time spent with the lovely Julia and would definitely recommend her to fellow punters
