The Premises:

We met at the studio where Sienna has done photo shoots and entertained clients. It is in a unit on an industrial estate.

The operation is being wound down but the boudoir area with king size bed was available. There was a problem with the heating and Sienna offered me the opportunity to cancel but I went ahead with the meet as I wanted to see her and the studio which I know has been used for lots of porn shoots over the years.

Sienna is looking for a new place she can use in Hertfordshire.

The Lady:

Sienna is a well built lady in her late 30's, with long dark hair and large breasts. About size 16 to 18, approaching being a BBW. Nice face and the photos on her profile are accurate.

The Story:

I have been trying to get an opportunity to see Sienna for some months as she ticks a lot of my boxes and when we eventually got something arranged I did not want to cancel.

Sienna was dressed in a basque with suspenders and stockings and long leather boots.

As I was sucking on her large breasts her nipples popped out like organ stops.

After giving her a good sucking, licking and fingering, Sienna lay back and lifted her legs up to enable me to slip in to her pussy for some vigorous deep stick mish.

After recovery time, I slipped a butt plug into her bum and pumped it up as she need to be opened up as I was her first client of the day.

She made sure I was rock hard with a good deep blow job. Then I covered up, lubed up, withdrew the plug and slipped into her bum for some hard anal action.

We had a long chat afterwards about the things she is doing and the fact that she needs to find somewhere new for meetings. Also we discussed the party scene which she is keen to get it to.

All in all a great way to end a hard week at work.
