The Premises:

After my last review of the place, the owner has had the two massage rooms re-carpeted and the ceilings appear to have had a lick of paint. The sauna was working when I arrived but the showers remain in a dilapidated and filthy condition and the place generally remains cobwebbed and filthy. Parking in the streets nearby is good.

The Lady:

Laura is Caucasian, toned body, dark hair, good average sized breasts and she looks attractive.

The Story:

This was one of those occasions (the first time for me!) when the woman clearly was not of a mind to offer good customer service. Little was said; her attitude was short and curt; no kissing or any evidence of warmth or passion. Her performance was rather cold and clinical. The massage without powder or oil was short and very limited in both time and quality. Covered oral was similar. Sex was reasonably good with her showing responsiveness; missionary and doggy was followed by vigorous cowgirl that was rather good and my orgasm was strong. Her technique was very good, though again her performance and behaviour afterwards was cold and clinical and devoid of any emotion. No offer of a drink. I showered and left promptly.

I doubt I will return. Better value and an altogether better quality experience can be had elsewhere for the money paid. Shame, because in the past this parlour and the women who work there have been exceptionally good and the overall quality of the place and the atmosphere have been good too.
