The Story:

I met with Diana in a hotel

Diana arrived on time, an aspect I like, in a very smart trouser outfit

From the first few minutes, it was obvious that Diana that a man could want in a woman.

The date was an overnight stay and everything was relaxed. Diana is expert at making a man relaxed. Following a lovely meal with Diana providing more than her own share of intelligent and amusing conversation, we retired to the boudoir, for what proved to be an exciting evening of intimacy. Having changed into some stunning lingerie that highlighted her wonderful figure brilliantly, DIANA then proved that she is is a wonderful, tender and experienced lover who will take a man to pleasure that can only be imagined.

Next morning Diana again to the lead for an exciting pre-breakfast period of intimacy.

All in all a memorable experience with a delightful, intelligent young lady who obviously loves her line of work and makes sure that you do too.
