The Premises:

Discrete basement flat in quiet residential road near Earls Court. The flat has one "normal" bedroom, another bedroom with some dungeon equipment and lots of outfits and a large cage/cell near the front door.

The Lady:

Absolutely stunning blonde, probably mid 20's, tall and very well spoken - look at the pictures on the website and then believe me when I tell you that although you've probably seen a million times on this site "much better in person", this time it really is true.

The Story:

I told Mistress Victoria that I wanted a tie and tease session, with just a few twists to it which I discussed. We agreed on half an hour for the scene, and she left the room to change, instructing me to be kneeling naked on the floor when she returned.

A few minutes later she re-entered the room wearing a PVC body and PVC thigh high boots. She went to a cupboard and removed a leather hood which she placed over my head, she put a gag in my mouth and tied it behind my head. Next she put a heavy leather collar with a chain around my neck. She pulled me up by the chain until I was standing, because that was how it was going to be. She wouldn't tell me what to do, she would just drag me and if I did the wrong thing, I would be punished.

She kicked my legs apart and retrieved a small leather device from the cupboard. It was a hollow leather tube with laces to tighten it and a ring with press-studs at one end. She fastened the ring behind my balls and slid the tube over my by now straining dick, then pulled the laces tight. This was agony, because the tube had small, sharp studs inside. She explained that if I displeased her, she would squeeze my dick to punish me.

Without warning, she yanked the chain down until I was on all fours, then sat on my back and played with my balls. This made my dick strain against the studs - pain and pleasure!

Next, she yanked me upright and tied me to the cross, then slipped the loop on the end of the chain over the toe of her boot and lay on the bed playing with herself, while jerking the chain with her foot. All the time she taunted me that I couldn't kiss her or lick her because of the gag, and I couldn't fuck her because my dick was encased in leather.

Finally she stood up and pressed herself against me, and whispered in my ear "would you like to get your dick between my legs now?" I nodded. Suddenly she brought her legs together and squeezed my dick between her thighs, laughing evilly at the look of pain on my face.

When I got my breath back, she was undoing the restraints on the cross, and then blindfolded me. I felt her jerking the chain and pulling me towards where the door was. I was dragged through it, then along the corridor. When she stopped, I heard a squeek of metal on metal, then I was jerked down and pushed into the cage. The door clanged shut behind me and I heard the click of her boots on the floor as she left.

After a while I heard her return, open the cage and drag me out. She taunted me some more that I wasn't fit to be allowed to kiss her, and all the while she ran her hands over my balls. Then without warning I was pushed back into the cell and she was gone again.

When she returned a second time I was pulled, still blindfold, back to the room we started in and made to stand with the backs of my legs against the bed. A sharp push in the chest made me fall onto it, then she climbed astride me and removed the blindfold and the instrument of torture around my dick. She wrapped her hand around my dick and very slowly worked me into a state of frenzy telling me I wasn't allwed to come until she told me I could. She brought me to the edge several times before telling me I could come, which was a mindblowing experience.

Mistress Victoria is fantastic, as you can see from the above. I can't recommend her highly enough. Me? I'm off to see her tomorrow....
