The Premises:

Located next to MK town centre. Block of flats with plenty of people walking by. Plenty of parking at a reasonable rate. Inside the room was nice and warm.

The Lady:

Listed stats are 21 years old, 5'6" Size 10-12 and 34DD. These seem about right. There are plenty of photos on the website, however, they are not accurate. Yes it is her but she has quite a saggy stomach and flabby thighs, breasts also were not as firm or as full as they were made to appear in the photos. Photos have been clearly altered. She also wore no make up when I arrived and again, when comparing to the photos on the website, which are what attracted me to Aisha, this was a huge and immediate disappointment. I considered walking away there and then, and wish I had.

The Story:

After being put off by Aishas actual appearance I was then further discouraged by the coldness of her. Very little attempt to make conversation, she is foreign and perhaps english is a problem for her but none the less, not what I was looking for and i'm the one paying for this. Started off with a massage which was ok but I didnt feel excited to be there. Rolled over and tried to kiss with Aisha but she wouldn't french kiss. Aisha started to give me oral but positioned herself so that I couldn't touch her. When I tried to move closer she moved away. Lost interest at this point, couldn't get aroused by her at all. Talked her in to letting me give her oral instead but she had so much gunk on her pussy she tasted vile and I felt like being sick. 15 minutes in I claimed I had come and got the hell out of there.

This was without a doubt the worst experience i've had and that's what prompted me to write a review. I won't use annabelles again because of the faked photos. The fact they do that then suggests the rest of their service will be more. They've also put me off using an agency, I normally go independent. I'll be returning to that choice from now on.

Aisha in particular struck me as someone who didn't want to be there. Maybe she just didnt want to be with me, but if you cant fake it for your customers, wrong business.
