The Premises:

A top floor flat located very near to Warren Street tube station. It is a small flat, but it has shower facilities.

The Lady:

A Thai lady, maybe in her mid thirties, very friendly.

The Story:

This was a massage/relief service definitely focused more on the massage side than the relief. The massage took place on a massage table which I prefer. The massage was firm/deep tissue and sometimes a bit painful. I did feel really good afterwards though and it was obvious that Suya had been trained professionally. The relief was performed with Suya at the end of the table so no opportunity for touching, plus she does not do topless. She does have a flat mate who will do that, but she had left the flat as I arrived. I wasn't too disappointed though because of the quality of the massage and the friendly conversation.
