The Premises:

Samantha's place is a studio flat just a short walk from Gloucester Road tube station, fit for purpose but a little untidy.

The Lady:

Exactly as her pics on the other site, Samantha is a tall slim Polish blond with a beautiful face and fantastic body, her ad says she is 24 and I can't argue with that. She offers OWO,CIM and Alevels.

The Story:

I visited this lady more in hope than expectation as there are many negative comments about her attitude and behaviour both on this site and others.

Samantha likes to organise things via text messages so around 10am on Saturday I sent her a message asking if she was free at 4pm, she replied to say she was so I booked.

Her place is easy to find and after being buzzed in I made my way to her door which was already opening as I approached, got to say she is very hot a very beautiful face. I handed over the money and as she went off to stash it I undressed and got on the bed. When she returned she started behaving oddly, she seemed distant and removed some of the things I'd read about her were now coming back to haunt me. She stripped and joined me on the bed and she does have a great body, I played with her perfect little tits while she stroked my cock but then she made a remark that questioned my sexual health, I really don't want to go into details but it was an extremely silly and very offensive thing to say and could just have easily applied to Samantha as to me but I would never be so rude as to actually say it.

Well that comment really did put an end to the meeting, she did offer me a covered BJ but I declined, I told her she could keep £40 and I'd leave, slightly to my surprise she agreed to this and I left.

I've seen many escorts and suffered my fair share of rip offs but never has it been done in such a nasty way, well I only have myself to blame I ignored the warnings about this lady and paid the price, don't make the same mistake.

Looking at my recent reviews it does seem to paint a bleak picture of my punting life but I must say it's not an accurate reflection. The trouble is many of the good experiences I've had recently have been with well established ladies and even if I do write them a great review it's unlikely to increase their income by a single penny as everyone already knows how good they are but I do hope to have something positive to say in the near future just to prove it's not all doom and gloom.
