The Premises:

MK centre location. Clean and tidy two floor apartment. Easy to find and lots of short term parking space available

The Lady:

Heather's photos are a very good likeness. The one thing they fail to convey is quite how beautiful her face is framed by her lovely genuine blonde tresses. Her figure is truly voluptuous and defines the epigram "hour-glass". Everything is natural and firm and delightfully symmetrical.

The Story:

After I was shown upstairs by the lady in charge, I waited no longer than 90 seconds before Heather breezed in with the glass of water I had requested. She wore a very short tight "complicated" skirt and a flimsy blouse and, as it quickly transpired, nothing else. She was ready to go. She said the chocolates I bought for her deserved a good snog, but not before I had stripped. She removed her two vestments before I had even undone my belt buckle. I could not take my eyes off her face, so gorgeous was it that I hardly took in the very impressive front and rear bumps that Heather is blessed with. I got to grips with them as we snogged. I then went down on her on the bed for a few minutes of pussy worship and she returned the favour with enthusiasm. I told her that Little Warrior was not all that reliable these days and she immediately came up with the following proposal. "How about a shag right now and then you can come in my mouth?". "Sounds good to me" I replied meekly as I wondered why all women aren't so understanding. Doggy was a delight, with a superb view, even though I was definitely below par. As soon as Heather sensed me flagging she told me to get the condom off and lie on the bed. It only took her about 30 seconds of concentrated cock sucking before I had completed the planned sequence of events. Thank you Heather.

Apart from her sensational looks (ok voluptuous is not everyone's preference but what a face) Heather was very friendly, very focused and VERY chatty. Her oddly girlish voice belies her relative maturity. All in all, she is an absolute treasure.
