The Lady:

Pam's profile on the website is just as she looks in person. Very attractive girl and her photos are accurate, with both a great body and pretty face.

The Story:

Appearance:- Pam is stunning, young and pretty. Probably one of the most attractive girls I have seen at Annabellas.

Personality:- Difficult to really gauge, as her English is ok but not great. This did cause some awkwardness at times when she misunderstood or didn't understand things I had said.

Time:- Its fair to say while I was in the room for the 30 minutes I had booked, this was not a 30 minute booking. It was very rushed and was essentially only 15 minutes.

Services:- Pam's services are listed as "ALL services except A-levels & CIM". Based on my booking this is inaccurate as I was effectively offered covered oral with no kissing and no touching at all.

Comments:- Simply put this was probably the worst booking I have had during around 4 years of punting in MK. After a spell of only seeing regulars, I have recently started to see some new girls at Annabellas and this is the first poor booking for some time. I decided to see Pam based on her profile and reports, but have been left a bit puzzled by both. On her arrival in the room and sorting out the fee, we undressed and she ushered me to lay down on the bed. Pam then proceeded to place a condom on me before either one of us had even touched each other and started OW. While doing this she then proceeded to pause every so often to reach for a tissue or wetwipe and wipe her mouth, which was off putting to say the least. She was reluctant to touch me or be touched, actually at one point telling me she wouldn't allow her pussy to be touched as I had been outside and my hands would not be clean. She wanted to get the booking over as soon as she could and I felt pretty much the same after a few minutes of all this. As stated before, I am confused by what I encountered given the previous positive reports, an off day maybe but I am not convinced. No positives to take at all, an awful booking.
