The Premises:

Valentina has a nice basement flat within walking distance of Edgeware Road and Paddington tube stations. The flat is modern and comfortable with a nice shower/bath and a good bed ... I don't remember if there were mirrors. The shower/bath is big enough for two. The flat was fine, the only down side was that the office above the flat must have hardwood floors and the people love to stomp and roll their chairs around .. lol.

The Lady:

Valentina is just like her photos ... only better. She has a smoking hot body, and nicely enhanced breasts, and a pretty face as well. Its pretty much what you see in the photos is what you see when you meet her. She'd like to have a bigger bum, but for me two great handfulls is just right.

The Story:

Valentina is a great punt. To me she's right up there with the best asian escorts. She's bright, funny and she can talk for Thailand, but she's O and A qualified and she's happy to demonstrate her skills in many imaginative ways. I've seen her on a number of occasions and she's done everything I've wanted with a smile and skill ... great DFK, O to CIM, A to exhaustion (mine) and sex in more positions than I care to think about. The great thing though is that she really seems to have fun while making sure you do too ... can't fake that blush ... this girl likes sex! I have to admit I was a little put off when I discovered her new site does not list a phone, but the booking process was pretty smooth, she texted me to confirm, so I guess its no biggie. I know she does wilder stuff than I go for WS for instance, but I'm happy with the games we play. I always leave her with rubber legs and a silly smile plastered over my face ... go and see her and you will too.

If you're still reading and desperate for some details ... she met me at the door in some wonderful mesh creation with hooks down the front to undo, looked spectacular ... I thought I'd seen a photo of it but its not on her site. She offered me a drink, I always go for water as I usually need the fluids, and I sorted out the paperwork. I had an assisted shower, she normally showers with me, but she was clean and I wanted her to keep the lingerie on so I would have the fun of taking it off, so she stayed out the she bath and helped (hindered ... but in the nicest way). Once dry we headed to the bedroom and I got her to lay down so I could kiss and lick most of the bits the lingerie didn't cover. Then it was all about slowly unhooking the lingerie and kissing/licking all the newly exposed bits. I didn't make it all the way down before she turned the tables on me and started kissing and licking bits of me. Then she grabbed me and got down to some serious owo and ball licking and sucking.

She said she'd missed breakfast and was thinking of saussage and eggs :-p. While she had me where she wanted she stripped off the lingerie rolled on a condom and sat down where it counts. We wresteled around for a while until I got her pinned face down under me. Then I grabbed the baby oil and squerted a generous amount on her bum. Okay so I got distracted and played around with spreading the oil over her cheeks, before I oiled her crack and ass. Then it was anal with her laying flat and in doggie. Then time to slow down, I'm not a youngster and like to last to the end. Valentina massaged me for a while, very relaxing. Time for more OWO to get everything pointing in the right direction and a fresh condom and then it was back to sexercise a variation on spoons, mish and good old doggy. I was beginning to puff like a steam train so Valentina put me on my back, lay down on top of me with her tasty pussy nicely poised over my tougue and sucked me to completion. After that its just a matter of trying to get out of bed, showering together and, with a fresh bottle of water in hand, heading out into the afternoon. I don't know of any better way to spend a couple of hours.
