The Premises:

Samantha's flat is at the rear of a terraced house on quiet, tree-lined street in Bayswater (verging on North Kensington). It is small but comfortable, and immaculately clean. Her shower stall is compact but then so is Samantha, so it is possible to share a shower with her if one is similarly svelte. On-street 'pay and display' parking is available but I didn't see many empty parking spaces so I wouldn't depend on it - I took the Hammersmith & City tube to the Royal Oak station (about a ten-minute walk to her flat) and was glad that I did.

The Lady:

Samantha looks quite different than those pneumatic babes on Copacabana Beach, with bikini lines and 'landing strip', that one usually associates with Brazilian women. Her mahogany body is sleek and trim, without an ounce of fat, and her legs make her look taller than she really is (probably about 5'5") and she is simply gorgeous. Her photos are accurate but only tell part of the story - they do not reveal her lovely face, wicked grin nor sexy (husky) voice - Samantha is the real deal!

The Story:

I've now seen Samantha twice and it would be very easy to return twice-weekly if my body and wallet could withstand the strain. One could easily spend the entire session just worshipping her gorgeous body and luxuriating in her company. She loves both giving and receiving sensual massage and oral pleasure; she offers a romantic GFE that ticks all my boxes, but I suspect that she can offer a pretty passionate PSE, as well). The sight of her just lying nude on the bed, with a huge grin on her face and a come-hither look in her eye, is a sight to behold. Let the games begin!
