The Lady:

The picture on their twitter site I don't think was entirely accurate but I wasn't at all disappointed. Very pretty girl with sexy eyes, about 5ft 7 or 8 with toned body and lovely firm booty. Boobs not that big but so what.

The Story:

I saw her about a two weeks ago, she was listed only as a name on the website with no description of her services or photos. I viewed a picture of her on their twitter site, she was not naked, just scantily clad, no face shot, well actually just the bottom part of her face which was enough to suggest she was very attractive and the along with this, the curves and the french connection, it was enough to make me want to visit. Having visited a few other ladies there, I knew that the full service would be offered but as there was no description of services shown, I didn't presume kissing or ow would be offered so I only hoped and not expected they would be.

She entered the room and although I have my doubts whether the picture on twitter is actually her, I thought she was quite beautiful to be honest and would definitely class her as a black girl, with parents from Senegal and Sudan, it is hardly surprising. She did possess a french accent and told me she lived in France. I believed her and anyway, if she was straight from Senegal, there is a strong french connection in that country which would have accounted for the accent.

I thought she had a wonderful figure, really toned sexy booty and yes, small boobs but thats perfectly fine and she was quite happy for me to indulge in them. Again I was not mislead on the boob front as there was no size listed at that time and I could see from the picture she was small in that department. She wasn't interested in kissing but we did a little. she was happy though for me to use my fingers to lube her up. She rode on top with some suggestive moans and then some doggy which I know would have been difficult for a shorter guy has she not bent her legs. For me it was perfect and most enjoyable.

We had a nice chat afterwards and I really enjoyed my session. I can see why the grand cheese has made some of his comments but feel its a bit over the top and more to do with some misrepresentation of her physique, background and services (although the latter I don't know where he would have found this).

If you like tall, slim/toned darker skinned ladies and don't expect it to be full on GFE/PSE then you will enjoy meeting her. Thats my honest view anyhow. Would be interested in other takes after a visit.
