The Premises:

parking was close by in the train station, only a short walk to the flat. there was a door buzzer entry system, same as safe with no one looking over the door way. flat was small but ok for our needs bathroom ok. but there was a lot of clutter about the place, nico said she was moving soon and was getting things packed away.

The Lady:

the aw site description was ok the girl was the same one in the photos

The Story:

please, please, please do not go and see nico this is a very very bad experience.

got to the flat ok after parking in the train station.

pressed the buzzer and was let into hall way then up some stairs to the flat.

nico said sorry about the mess but she was getting ready to move. she was still getting ready for our meeting having just got out of the shower.

she asked for the money and went to get ready. this was a trick because as soon as she went out of the room someone claiming to be her brother came barging in, he must have had a key because I know I closed the entrance door and this can only be opened by the buzzer switch or a key.

He then set to and threaten to beat me up and rip my face off, I was then chased out of the flat. with out my cash.

so punters be warned and do not go to see NICO XPERIENCE in wakefield.
