The Lady:

A young Scottish lady between 27 - 32 years old, 5' 7" tall, very thin about a size 6, very small breasts roughly about 32B. Unkempt blonde hair.... Shames me to say she looks nothing like the pictures on the website and her description couldn't be any further.... she was chatty enough, but not very friendly.

The Story:

I had booked Faye, after looking at the Northern Angels website, she seemed and sounded amazing, unfortunately... my worst Punt ever! The lady arrived almost 2hours late, no apology and kept me in the dark, and then suddenly appeared out of the blue... Checked shirt, jeans, converse all star trainers - on no!

Anyway now that she was finally here I invited her in...As she came in she asked to use the rest room to freshen up, no probs there, straight after that Faye wanted the money out of the way, which is the norm, so no problem at all, I also agree it's easier to get the money out of the way first it allows everyone to relax and then have fun without feeling awkward later...I counted out £150 and handed it over.

I offered a glass of wine, which she accepted and then she chatted, every time I got close she'd move away or had to check her bag or had to send a txt....Hmmm very strange. After sometime, she kept looking at her watch, I asked her maybe we should get a little more comfortable on the bed "hint hint, nudge nudge".... Faye did offer me a massage, but advised it would have to be without talc, oil, or any lotion, just dry... I said no problem... I stripped and lay on the bed, and she's still fully clothed. I asked her to join me and her reply was.... the £150 you gave me is for my companionship only, if you want anything other than chat, then give me another £100...I tried to reason and advise her never before have I heard any kind of arrangement like this before, but she was adamant, the £150 is for her company only and any extra is another £100!!

Needless to say, I showed her the door.... a complete Hustle, my advise to anybody is make sure if you do book Faye is to find out before hand exactly what is included in the price...
