The Lady:

Beautiful young ebony student, svelte but nicely-curved body, lovely smile, engaging personality - the flower of youth!

The Story:

As a mature punter, I am more interested in the total experience, rather than starting out with a list of requirements and a 'set menu'. A shared bottle of wine, mutual sensual massage, slow foreplay and 'go with the flow' works well for me and it tends to work especially well with ebony escorts. My sole goal is for both parties to have a great time and I have had a wonderful time with Ebony on each of the three occasions that we have been together and they keep getting better and better.

Ebony really is an 18 year-old student, and a very mature and serious one, as well. I was a bit hesitant in booking her originally because the age-gap involved is rather larger than I would normally prefer. Within several minutes, whatever reservations or concerns I had harboured disappeared completely. She is very independent, thinks about what she says and says what she means. I found her very responsive and very appreciative of being treated like the lovely young woman that she is.

In short, Ebony is a 'gifted amateur' who very likely will only be escorting for a limited time and, although young, potentially embodies the term 'Girl Friend Experience' for punters of all ages. She is not for the hard-core PSE fan or the guy who is just looking for a quickie. The usual caveats about the punter's behavior while with her pertain.
