The Premises:

The flat was in a pleasant area close to the centre of Telford. I parked in a public car park close by, though there was parking in vicinity of the flat. The area felt safe and the room in the flat was clean and tidy.

The Lady:

Attractive 20 something. Pierced upper lip, short blond hair. The pictures on her AW profile are accurate. I was not disappointed.

The Story:

I phoned having parked up and was asked to wait for 10-15 minutes. She called me when I was ready. She opened the door in some lovely lingerie. She showed me to the room and asked whether I wanted a 3some with her friend instead of a 1-2-1. I declined as I'd only enough money for the hour with her - she suggested 30 minutes (in the light of what happened I should have said yes). She went to get my drink and we exchanged paperwork. When she came back in I'd undressed to my boxers as she requested and we started kissing. It was then she called to her friend in Bulgarian (I'm assuming this as her profile states that this is her nationality) and explained she wanted her phone in the room. Her friend came in whilst we were in mid clinch! I returned to the job in hand - when her phone rang she answered it and indicate that I should continue sucking her tits whilst she made an appointment for 15 minutes after mine was due to finish! Stupidly, I thought that was it and carried on. She gave me some perfunctory covered oral and then responded to her friends call and left the room. Back in and onto the bed for some reverse oral and an aggressive handjob that saw me come. Cue to leave the room again whilst I cleaned myself up, she came back in to writhe at distance, imploring me to get myself hard again - I suggested she join me on the bed to encourage me. She left the room again returning with a splif(?) and proceeded to getting dangerously close to giving me a burn as she tried some more covered oral on my flaccid member. At this point I called a halt to proceedings (around 30 minutes into the hour). During the time there was a british male voice in the flat - not another customer. Interestingly there was a positive review on AW after my appointment and she was disappointed/upset/scared that I left before the end of the appointed time. I explained it was not working so saw little point in staying.
