The Lady:

Stella is all woman with curves in all the right places. A very sexy Kiwi girl, slim and toned, yet sensuous. She is 5'9" when not wearing heels, but I met her when she was wearing heels and she was just a bit shorter than me. She looks in her mid 20's, but seems more powerful than that. And I have to say she looks even more stunning in person than in her photos - which look alluring anyway.

The Story:

Mistress Stella is an absolute stunner, and I had an overwhelming mind blowing (and other parts blowing) experience. We met at my hotel. She only takes advanced bookings which suited me better. We had a small drink to break the ice, while we discussed what I had in mind for the session. Then she had me strip and stand naked while she blindfolded me and taunted me, whispering in my ear about all the naughty and torturous things she was going to do me. Her devious use of pegs made everything all the more sensitive, as did her strict attention to any offending parts of mine. She expertly handled me, loving when I whimpered, so she made sure she did things that made me whimper alot! When I was ready to finish, she tied my hands behind my back, ready for the excruciating end we'd agreed on. And once I came, she cruelly kept jerking my sensitive knob until I was begging and nearly crying. So much fun! She truly is a professional who enjoys her work. The next day as I write this, my nipples and groin are still deliciously sensitive and tender. I will most definitely be making sure I have more work to do in London.
