Tina looked like her photographs except for the smile! Quite pretty.

The Story:

Too many of the posts on this establishment look like they are written by the same person! Many of them seem to be complete essays ending with adulation. So here is a real review. I chose Tina because she looked good and petite. I also like to use the tradesman's entrance on occasion and this is listed as one of her services. We agreed all that for £100. We both undressed and get on the bed and old willy comes to attention. First a bit of hand work and then OWO on Tina's part. The OWO is very good however it appears that I am not really allowed to touch anything. My hand is moved away from the breasts and the pussy although I am allowed to stoke her arse.

We then get into a 69 position with her on top. My tongue is allowed in the clit area but my hands are not. We then go for the 2nd course starting with her riding me cowgirl and then in the mish position, then from underneath. Sort of alright except that her hand is kept between our bodied all the time and she is does not really want to allow me much access to her pussy, keeping her legs rigid.

Then we go for the main course in the doggy position. Lots of lube and I ease my way through the back door. I take it nice and gently and we are in but that hand is still between us. Eventually we go face down on the bed which seems to work better. I ask to change to mish and insert it in the rear entrance again. Again that hand is there and her legs are vice like and not willing to open.

Eventually I give up and lie on my back. Tina does a fast hand job and some OWO again and eventually I cum with my first shot in her mouth.

Summary. Don't quite know what happen to the much touted GFE, FK etc. She looked miserable all the time. OWO was very good. However one of the basics of a good fuck is to be allowed to handle the goods and be allowed some full depth action and this meeting did not live up to expectations sadly.
