The Premises:

Different location from where I have been to in the last two years, although the building was easy to find on google (but my tom tom didnt recognise the building number) it was close enough to the other places I have visited for me to find easily. The only problem was the entrance was around the back of the building which took me a while to find but I was still on time luckily. The flat itself was well decorated and a modern looking apartment compared to other Annabella's properties. The décor in the bedroom was the same black themed classy standard you see in all their places.

The Lady:

Stunning girl with dark her and lovely soft skin, pictures from the website are accurate. She looks a lot younger than 33 as stated on the website IMO. Great shaped body which she looks after well and a to top it off a lovely sexy accent but speaks perfect English. Very talkative girl and easy to get on with and have a conversation and very eager to please you.

The Story:

I walked into the flat expecting to see a maid but Kristina answered the door wearing lovely black lingerie which showed off her lovely assets. I introduced myself and she showed me to the bedroom. I believe we were the only two in the flat but could be wrong. She offered me a drink and I asked for my usual glass of water as I was driving and to hydrate myself before the fun began. Kristina went off and then came back with it shortly.

Kristina was one of the first girls I wanted to see when I first started punting almost 2 years ago but I didnt end up seeing her back then before she seemed to disappear. Although I have seen her pop up at various other parties and establishments I had never got around to see her, now finally seeing her back at Annabella's there was no question who I was going to see today.

We started with a short chat, getting to know each other a bit and how my week had been, etc and sorted out the paperwork. After this Kristina started unbuttoning my shirt and jeans with a lovely kissing session until I was down to my boxers and then we moved to the bed for some more kissing. Kristina rolled on top of me on the bed and kissed my body and my nipples which was very arousing and then some more French kissing as I caressed her body. She had my lollipop like a rock when we finally we got rid of my boxers for some oral time.

She gave me a very lovely session of OWO with lots of eye contact licking up and down the shaft of my dick and sucking my balls, throwing in some deep throat and gagging from her. She does really like to suck cock and does it very well. I could have stayed like this all day but it was time for some sex. I asked if she would ride me first and she told me she is going to ride me until I cum. She skillfully put the condom on my dick with her mouth only, which was quite impressive. She then proceeded to mounted me and rode me very well with the occasional stop for some kissing and nipple sucking. She was one of the best riders I have had actually with her tight pussy (at least in my top 3 for sure).

She asked if I wanted to go on top which I obliged and I fucked her in missionary while we made encouraging moans and telling me to cum in her with my long dick. This turned me on a lot and With some more kissing as I fucked her until I came inside her as she demanded from me. ;) I didnt believe it, I came and I had only been in the building for 20 minutes which is unusual for me, I usually last a lot longer.

We spend the next 15 minutes kissing cuddling and talking about all sorts of things, but I wont go into that, just she is a lovely girl to hold a conversation with and has a strong personality.

I then asked her she wanted me to go down on her which we seemed to want. She had a lovely tasty pussy mixede with the strawberry (I think) durex lube and I enjoyed licking and sucked her pussy and clit as she moaned until she came (which she said was now the second time). I asked her honestly what she thought of my oral skills and she said I was doing everything right which gave me an ego boost. More chatting as I got dressed and some more kissing it was time to leave. I looked at my watch and we had actually gone over time too. I was her last client of the night and she still had a lot of stamina left in her.

She asked me if I will write her a report on punternet as she didnt have any at the moment, which I love doing anyway as it like a diary for me and always brings back memories of my time with a girl when I re-read them later, so here it is. :) Thank you for a lovely time Kristina, you were a perfect great fuck and I enjoyed every minute of our time together. Hopefully you are back to stay in this business for a while now and I see you again. :)
