The Premises:

A well known place between South Kensington and Sloane Square. Shower was ok. Flat was dark. Clean.

The Lady:

Older looking than on the website with a tattoo that has been either airbrushed out or from older photos.

The Story:

Following a very positive review, I decided to give her a chance. However this proved to be a mistake.

On arrival I took a shower. We spoke but her English seemed limited.

Kissing was cursory, she smelled of stale cigarettes. Whilst she gave a good BJ, there seemed to be lots of reluctance. Lots of sporting onto kitchen towel and no CIM on offer.

Sex was perfunctory. No anal on offer. No evidence of this apparent sector.

Maybe it was me. But I am clean and respectful. No chemistry seemed there. Mechanical and a very big let down. I took another shower and cut my losses...
