Profile Name: Sexy Asian Escorts No 1 Asian Agency Since 2009

Website: <https://www.sexyasianescorts.co.uk>

Phone: 07772333310

The Premises:

A flat in a block of flats that was once probably quite prestigious, but now has seen better days. Her room was perfectly pleasant - only problem was the bathroom. Not only was it not en suite (which is annoying if you want to share a bath and you suspect there is more than one girl working in the same flat) but it also looked a little grimy and in need of updating. I think this is more a matter for the landlord than for the girls (as I don't doubt they've done their best to keep it clean) but it is off putting.

The Lady:

Sophia advertises herself as 24 and so I was mentally prepared to meet someone closer to forty. I needn't have worried and Sophia is definitely in her twenties. She met me in lingerie and a pair of green stiletto shoes that I think she is extremely proud of.

The Story:

I'd never used this agency before, but I choose it because it had been mentioned on one of the punternet threads and because it seemed to have slightly larger number of girls than some of the other Asian agencies I was aware of. As with any new agency I was slightly concerned as to what to expect. I need not have worried. Sophia was a bundle of professional enthusiasm. I was probably one of her first clients of the day, but even so she had so much energy that can well believe that even if you saw her at 2am instead of 2pm then, provided you were clean and sobre you'd get a comparable level of service as I did. I don't think I could have asked for anything and it would not have been meet by a immediate smile and agreement. I am quite vanilla in what I like so I did not push any boundaries, but whilst she did not go quite as far as some of the other escorts I have met over the years (who keep their whip and dildos on their bedside cabinet)I doubt she would disappoint anyone with more elaborate tastes.

Her English is reasonable - though I think she has not yet been in the country a year and it will doubtless improve over the next few months.
