The Lady:

Early 20s, girl next door looks, large breasts, shorter than average in height, medium build with a couple of extra inches round the waist, reportedly of mixed race but the Caucasian genes dominate and it's not obvious what the other parts of the mix are, came across as a nice person with no attitude.

The Story:

This was my first punt at Annabellas where there was no kissing and I've seen a lot of ladies at this establishment some more than once.

I was looking for a gfe and normally I would not have been disappointed in Milton Keynes where with careful selection it would be virtually guaranteed. Sienna however said she didn't do it despite her profile stating that she did all services except A levels and cim. I suggested that she amends it to prevent misunderstandings and she was honest enough to admit that I wasn't the first client to say this.

I wanted to walk but for some reason there were fewer than the usual number of ladies on the roster at the start of the day and the number dwindled even further later so my options were limited.

So I stayed.

Her owo technique was very very good and this provided the main focus of the session. I enjoyed the encounter more than I expected and would therefore recommended but this is heavily caveated for those requiring the premium services which other ladies at Annabellas provide as standard.
