The Premises:

First mistake, only noting the post code to program into GPS. Found the road easily enough but no external signage so if you don't note down the '17a' you will walk on by. Tried again during one of the late sessions on Thursday evening. Area is a little intimidating during the evening hours but found parking on the road outside a residential block 5 minutes walk away.

Opened the door and walked into the passage, as the door closed I was in total darkness - fortunately the maid heard me entered and opened a door at the end of the passage so I could see. Typical parlour layout with 2 or 3 bedrooms; not the cleanest, not the worst. Wasn't offered a shower so cannot comment.

The Lady:

Only 1 girl available, 'new girl' Paige although I note she is no longer listed on the site. Tall, average looks, heavy accent and slightly slurred speech that I struggled to understand. Pink one-piece underwear and heels.

First impression, turn and run !

However, having made two attempts to find the place and after a fairly long drive (due to many good reviews), I foolishly decided to stay and give Paige a chance.

The Story:

Oh dear. Trust your instincts guys.

Not interested, going through the motions, mechanical, no kissing - and that description applied to both of us!

Dangerous looking nails and large ring that caused the first condom to split during fitting.

Only positive thing I can say is that Paige was skilled at deep-throat. However by then I just wanted to get the job done and get out.

This establishment has too many good reviews to believe that Paige is typical of their usual standard however I left regretting my visit and drove home to a long shower.
