The Premises:

The Dungeon was well equipped although I have had a session with Mistress Jadee in a bare room before now and trust me this Mistress can make a session / scenario out of anything.

The Lady:

Mistress Jadee is 5'8, a size 8-10. Curves in all the right places. Perfect figure. Simply stunning. Verbally amazing, most seductive voice I have ever heard. Sadistic when needed - photographs of Mistress Jadee only show her body but she indeed has the face to match.

The Story:

So here I am again, another Mistress and just not what i am looking for. Over my years I have seen some great Mistresses and one by one they have retired or simply moved on to other things. One Mistress I saw about 8 years ago was Mistress Jadee of Manchester. I remember walking in to a Dungeon in Bury and the sound of Dominant women was music to my ears. The Dungeon itself wasn't the best of Dungeons I have been too then out of the smoke (and i Do mean cigarette smoke) appeared a wonderful looking Mistress. She introduces herself as Mistress Jadee and firmly shakes my hand. She then continues to walk past me although I knew instantly that I wanted to follow her. I asked the lady on reception was she available and to no surprise I got the "she is fully booked". I had a session with another Mistress but was mind blown by this women. After my session I left and immediately called back up to make an appointment with Mistress Jadee. I had to wait a few days but soon those few days come around. Again I was greeted by Mistress Jadee and shown into the Dungeon. Her beauty was astonishing and I remember thinking that she was to attractive to be cruel. Mistress Jadee made me feel at ease and discussed my session covering all things I may want to or may not want to try. Then, just like a switch she changes. I was expecting her to leave the room and return but she took control of the session straight away. I was ordered to remove all my clothes immediately. Throughout the session I felt completely overpowered and at her mercy. Mistress could have told me to have left the house naked and I believe at that time I would have done anything she said. Mistress Jadee used her beauty as a weapon, something that really turns me on. I loved not being able to have her - she reminded me of my place and how lucky I was to serve her. I felt the same. The session soon passed, although this was not rushed, Mistress took time with the little bondage we did to ensure I couldn't move as well as the CBT. I also encountered some CP which at the time was not one of my favourite aspects although feeling her hand spanking my bottom soon made me think that it could be. After the session I continued to serve Mistress Jadee for a few years, sometimes twice a week. I honestly could not get enough and although sometimes there were general chit chat there was never that need for a further 'consultation'. Mistress just seemed to take everything from my body actions and the way i responded and either chose not to use it again or developed it more. Everything was perfect until one day Mistress Jadee retired. I wished her well but was screaming inside. A year or so passed and I decided it was time to try another Mistress. This turned out in me trying around 7 and I just could not get that feeling back. Then out of the blue one day whilst I was looking online (nearly 2 years after Mistress Jadee retired) I saw her website again. I clicked on and there she was looking every inch as beautiful and cruel as she did when I first met her. I called her straight away and started off with, "Hello Mistress, its me John". Straight away Mistress Jadee knew who I was and within a minute or so she got straight back into Dominating me. All my control was gone expect this time she said we were going to do things differently and gave me instructions. I was instructed to go to x place with x amount of money and not to have plans to be anywhere else. I didn't even bother to question her I just did as she told me to. 5 days later I was standing where I was instructed and soon received a text message with further instructions which followed by more instructions each time I got to her chosen destination. It seemed to go on forever but each time I was so nervous and so excited. Then out of the blue someone comes from behind and I am hooded, hurled over and before I know it I am in what appears to be a vehicle. I am handcuffed and no sooner had the door/boot shut I can feel the vehicle speeding away. At this point I am seriously shaking, I expect to hear Mistresses voice but every voice I hear is not Mistress. At this point I am so very nervous. Everything goes black and I mean pitch black and then the car stops. I am sweating from head to toe. The boot / door opens and I smell her, I just know its Mistress Jadee, I am dragged slightly with my head hanging out of the boot of the vehicle and her hand goes around my throat. She laughs and drags my feet out too. I am now standing upright having my belt removed from my trousers. I can feel the cold breeze so I know I am outside but have no idea where. My pants are opened and with her bot Mistress pushes them to the floor, she unbuttons my shirts and strips me of all my belongings. I am completely exposed and have never felt anything like it before. I am so turned on and Mistress Jadee hasn't even spoke to me yet. I feel her hair near me and then she grabs my cock. "This, my slave belongs to ME". Mistress then scratches her long nails over my nipples - remembering that this is my weak spot. I am useless at this point. Mistress throws me back into the boot of her car shuts the boot and drives off once again. I am so so happy but still so nervous. After a short journey we stop again. This time Mistress gets out and is absent for a few minutes, at this point my mind is a wreck - will she return?? Mistress certainly does and once again, with my pants around my ankles and my shirt open I am dragged out of the vehicle and instructed to walk. We are now indoors, where I have no idea but the cold draft has gone. I am led to a room what I know no to be the Dungeon and strung up with my arms suspended. After what seemed like hours Mistress Jadee finally spoke to me in a firm yet seductive manner. After begging Mistress I was finally allowed to see Mistress and I am not just saying this but Mistress Jadee had just got better with age, she was simply stunning. I can not think of anything that Mistress did not try - her rope expertise had certainly improved and from head to toe I simply could not move. Her wicked ways were better than what I remember and don't be fooled as she certainly does have a very sadistic streak to her. Mistress knows the balance but can certainly change in an instant. Without question it was the most thrilling experiences in my life as a slave. The journey I have been on with this Mistress is indeed a wild one and only gets better with time. The Mistress Kidnap as she is also known as certainly is a name that she deserves. A Mistress who does indeed dominate both the mind and body!! John.
