The Premises:

Bella's place is easy to get to and find. Parking can be found however it is a permit zone Mon - Sat. The house itself has much to be desired for, it lacks a shower and a toilet (with a door). Bella's boudoir however is very stylish and is just about the only part of the building that has had any work done to it. She shares the property with lodgers who reside upstairs, but they were not around at all.

The Lady:

Bella is stunning, her eyes are mesmerising Her body is stunning with a nice set of breasts and bum. She's extremely well looked after and takes pride in her services. Wonderful looks and personality, can hold a conversation with a firm grasp of English.

The Story:

I was passing through the area when I felt I ought to have a punt to end the evening so I contacted Bella last minute. She gave me her details and I turned up. I did however have to be briefed on how to approach her place as she does have upstairs neighbours. Once settled and formalities over with, we spoke for a while about what I was after, I said a body to body massage and she agreed. Her approach towards a body to body massage was unlike other girls as she would slide all over and tease my cock and balls, occasionally (with protection) allowing for penetration. This continued for some time and climaxed in me cumming all over her breasts whilst she kept eye contact with me. It was quite intense, however, afterwards I had to make do with tissues to clean up as she does not have a shower for punter use. Overall, if you want a great time, she's your girl but her place really is not ideal if you wanted to have a shower before you left. I'd see her again if she had different digs.
