The Story:

I made an appointment by phone with her. She messaged me near the time to ask if I was still coming. I responded yes. But received a follow up almost like she was telling me to hurry up. I wasn't even late. I found the building and she text me the flat number. I went up and was met at the door by her in a pink dressing gown. We went upstairs to the bedroom. I didn't get her smile from her. Only various grunts. We did the 'paperwork' and was asked if I wanted a shower. I said yes, but simply handed a towel and she pointed to the bathroom. Her English isn't that bad so there was no reason for this rudeness.

Finished my shower and she returned with some water. She took off her dressing gown and had a small g-string on underneath. We got on the bed but she turned away when I tried to kiss her. Seems kissing was on her long list of extras! So I kissed her neck and body. She made no real effort to get me aroused. Playing with my dick with the tips of her fingers like it was playdoh while she stared at the wall. She began to give me BJ but it was very slow and unenthusiastic. Her face since I walked in was very sullen. The service so far was almost robot like.

She put the condom on and I started to fuck her on her back to start. However, if I made any movement other than a very slow in and out she complained. So I couldn't even fuck her properly. It was like having sex with a granny. I tried to build up speed (as us guys need) but as soon as it was fast enough to hear any slapping noise she cried out. Calling me crazy! Ridiculous! Anything more than one pump a second and she was complaining. I'm not even that big.

I had enough. I took the condom off and threw it on the bed. I didn't even cum. Got dressed and left. On the way out I told her that her service was shit and that I wasn't happy. She just looked at me blankly. I won't be returning!
