The Premises:

The Lady:

Tall, close to 6ft, fit, stunning body with very long legs

Tattoo on the foot, nice navel jewel

Long straight black hair

Enhanced breasts but really beautiful

Mixed Italian-Romanian (not British as indicated)

Not the lady in the photos, not even close, but gorgeous

Correct English

The Story:

Good conversation, pleasant

I asked for a massage, which she was good at, then we moved on to more intimate things

I can't stress how gorgeous her body is

No RO (explaining that she was very conscious of her personal hygiene), no kissing, she changed position whenever I approached her pussy with my hand, so no fingering

The covered BJ was OK, did manage to get me hard

After a few minutes of covered sex, I went absent due to lack of personal interaction - she tried to revive me with her hand but that didn't work.

She then suggested that I do it myself whilst looking at her playing with herself, which I declined

I asked if she could revert back to BJ but she answered only once was included and that I would have to pay extra for continuation.

She then asked if she could go wash herself, which I agreed to

When she came back, she started dressing up and left, for a grand total of 45 minutes

If you're looking for a tall, stunning girl she may be your type, but if like me you want a GFE-type interaction pick someone else.
